NO INCREASE TO BE MADE IN FREIGHT RATES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The railroad administration will make no increase in freight rates before return of the railroads to private operation January 1.

Director General Hines wrote T. Dewitt Cuyler, chairman of the railway executives, today that it would be "impossible for the government to establish any general readjustment of rates" because earnings of the roads under the abnormal conditions prevailing in the early part of this year did not afford a fair test of income. The manifest desire of the public to have the interstate commerce commission exercise full authority in any readjustment of rates to be effective under private control also was cited by the director general as an objection to the railroad administration's undertaking such a readjustment.

"My view," wrote the director general, "has been and is that the important matter must be handled in accordance with the two following considerations:

"First, the question of an increase of rates could not properly be considered on the exclusive basis of the unfavorable showing which the railroad administration was making in the early part of this year, because that showing was very largely due to an abnormally small freight business, so that the results of that period could not fairly be taken as a test for making increases in rates. Necessarily, therefore, it seemed to me that the formulation of any proposal for a general increase in rates would have to await a better opportunity for making an estimate as to what the earnings capacity would be under normal conditions. I have been increasingly confirmed in this opinion by the various developments which have taken place.

"Second, it has seemed to me that the public would not be satisfied under existing conditions to have any general increase in rates put into effect without the concurrence of the interstate commerce commission. The public sentiment to this effect has been manifested in many ways throughout the year and has been emphasized by the recent passage by the two houses of congress of bills providing that there shall be an opportunity to review any rates proposed by the railroad administration before those rates shall go into effect. It follows, therefore, that time and opportunity must be provided for public consideration by the regulatory body making authority of any rate proposals now made."

Receiver of Bank Ordered Removed By the Court

BISMARCK, N. D., Oct. 7.—The state supreme court today issued an injunction removing P. E. Halldorson, as temporary receiver of the closed Scandinavian-American bank of Fargo, and citing Attorney General William Langer to appear before the supreme court October 15 and show cause why the injunction should not be made permanent and another receiver appointed.

Halldorson, an assistant to State Auditor Carl Kositzky, was placed in charge of the Fargo bank's affairs when it was ordered closed last Thursday by the state banking board. The injunction was issued on application of State Bank Examiner O. E. Loftus, who alleged his powers had been abrogated by Langer and Kositzky, acting as a majority of the state banking board. The law, according to the application, provides that the bank examiner only shall have the power to nominate a receiver.

At the same time state auditor Carl Kositzky obtained a court order requiring Director General F. W. Cattho to show cause why the state bank examiners should not be permitted to investigate the bank of North Dakota. Cattho this morning refused to allow the examiners to continue with

Highest Degree Is Conferred on Cardinal Mercier

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Columbia university today conferred the degree of doctor of laws, "honoris causa," the highest distinction in its power to bestow, upon Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, and "spiritual hero of the greatest of wars." Ten thousand faculty members, students and their families and friends stood in the bright sunlight on Morris Heights, at the base of the broad library steps, to witness and take part in the ceremony.

The cardinal, standing tall and grave before them, listened to an eloquent eulogy of himself, pronounced by President Nicholas Murray Butler.

"Columbia university, founded for the advancement of the public good and the glory of Almighty God, bails in you, Cardinal Mercier, the spiritual hero of the world's greatest of wars," said Dr. Butler in conferring the degree. "Your pen was mightier than the sword of the German armies. The heart of all America goes out to you and we hail you as a worthy prince of the church and a captain of the human spirit."

Earlier in the afternoon, at a luncheon of the members' council of the Merchants' Association, where 1500 leading citizens of New York gathered to honor the cardinal, Charles Evans Hughes welcomed him as "champion of humanity, exponent of invincible courage and undying faith."

Cardinal Mercier was the guest of honor at a dinner given tonight by the Inter-racial council, which was attended by more than 400 men and women prominent in banking and commercial circles. General T. Coleman Dupont, chairman of the council, who presided, stated that thirty-three distinct races were represented in the assemblage and two gold medals, upon which were engraved the names of the races present, were presented to the guest.

"I feel," Cardinal Mercier said, "that it will be very hard for me to go away. If I were allowed to follow my natural inclinations, and were not called home by duty I should become greatly interested in the problems of Americanization."

Applause greeted the cardinal when he said that perhaps in later years he would choose to spend his last days in the United States.

A mother-in-law's will power may keep a man good—if she has the power to will a few thousand dollars.

Why don't they call common tea "tannin-brew" or something like that? People would then know it for what it is, and would steer clear of it.

Now, really, when fine tea actually costs less per cup than common tea, what's the use of drinking the common tea?

Don't you believe it? Try a package of Schilling Tea, and get your money back if you don't think we're right.

There are four flavors of Schilling Tea—Japan, Ceylon, India, Oolong, English Breakfast. All one quality. In parchment-lined moisture-proof packages. At grocers everywhere.

Messages Pour Into White House From the World

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—President Wilson's condition improved again yesterday and his appetite, the failure of which has been one of the serious drawbacks to his recovery, showed a decided change toward normal. So far had he progressed that his two married daughters, Mrs. William G. McAdoo of New York, and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre of Cambridge, Mass., who came to his bedside several days ago, returned to their homes last night after consultation with the president's physician.

Dr. Grayson and the other physicians showed a decided inclination to guard against over-optimism, however, as they believe another setback still is within the range of possibility. They continued Mr. Wilson's confinement to bed and kept official business away from him.

Messages of sympathy continued to pour into the White House from all parts of the world. Late yesterday the following cablegrams reached the White House from President Porras of Panama:

"With the greatest pleasure we see by today's cable about the improvement of your health. We crave it will be a turning for the best."

MORGENTHAU IS DECORATED.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Captain Andre Tardieu, representing President Poincaré, today decorated Henry Morgenthau, former American ambassador to Turkey and head of the mission to Poland, as grand officer of the legion of honor in recognition of his services to France before and during the war. Mr. Morgenthau will leave for New York tomorrow by the steamer Adriatic, sailing from Cherbourg.
